

Recruiting women and girls for breast density study

- This pilot study will evaluate if a non-invasive hand-held tool (electrical breast densitometer) can measure breast density in adult women and adolescent girls.
- Adult women 30 years and older who had a normal mammogram on at least one breast in the last 2 years and adolescent girls aged 8-18 years who have some breast development are eligible to be in the study.

For more information or to participate contact the study staff at 735-2988
uog.brisk@gmail.com

