2012 Centenarian Recognition

The Department of Public Health and Social Services, Division of Senior Citizens is seeking the public's support and assistance in promoting an activity of the Division of Senior Citizens for May 2012's Senior Citizens' Month celebration.

As part of this year's celebration, a Centenarian Recognition event is being planned. A Centenarian, is any senior citizen whose primary residence is Guam and is or will be 100 years of age or older between January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012.

To assist the Division in recognizing Centenarians, the public is encouraged to inform a Centenarian, their family or caregiver about this event and where to access the biographical forms. The biographical form can be obtained from the Division of Senior Citizens located at 130 University Drive, Suite 8, University Castle Mall, Mangilao, or downloaded from the Department of Public Health and Social Services website at <http://dphss.guam.gov/>.

The deadline to submit biographical forms to the Division of Senior Citizens is Tuesday, March 20, 2012 at 5:00 p.m.

For more information, please contact Joleen Almandres of the Division of Senior Citizens at 735-7421/7415.
